NUMBER 123

JULY FOURTH, Independence Day.

How long since you have read the Declaration of Independence? That, we feel compelled to remind you, was a pretty big step for a group of colonists to take in the face of the entire world.

MOST OF US have read our history and have a rather general understanding of events leading up to the Declaration of Independence, but we doubt if we often stop to consider that this happened to men who must have had us in mind when they threw off the yoke and announced that come what may, they would go it alone.

They declared their independence of one country and declared their intention "to assume among the powers of the earth" a separate and equal station to which, they declared, "the Laws of Nature and Nature's God entitle them."

That's history.

IT IS HISTORY, but it isn't dated.

To be sure, all of that happened in 1776 — one hundred sixty-five years ago!

But did the founding fathers declare their independence for 1776?

They did not. They declared that "these colonies are, and of a right ought to be — free and independent states."

The colonies "are" in 1776, "and of a right ought to be" indefinitely into the future — "free and independent states."

THE POINT is that the Declaration of Independence is a continuing living thing. It isn't a manifesto changing the date of Thanksgiving Day. It isn't dated.

It was announced in 1776 as effective then and that time on and it is just as important to the nation today as it was the day after it was announced.

SO OFTEN, it appears, the observance of the Fourth of July takes the form of keeping a musty, cobwebbed commemoration of some ancient enactment; — something that happened a hundred and sixty-five years ago, 'way back before you and I were born.

Honoring the founding fathers, we seem to set them up as the ancient Greeks did their gods, regarding them as people of another world.

WE MUST escape this detached reverence; and in doing so gain a new and fresh appreciation of the importance of the Declaration of Independence, of what it meant to the men and the women of 1776 and of what it has meant and what it continues to mean yesterday, today and tomorrow as we — George Washington, John Hancock, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson and you and I — husband America's destiny.

A DECLARATION, by the Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled.

"When, in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundations on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly, all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a desire to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government."

Ray Miller was here the fore part of the week on a short leave from his Army Duties at Camp San Luis Obispo.

SOVIET ADMITS GERMAN GAIN IN UKRAINE

Stalin Rallies Nation, Instructs People In "Scorched Earth" Policy

MOSCOW, (UP)—Josef Stalin admitted to the Russian people today that the Germans had made huge gains, warned them that they were fighting for their liberty and their lives and called on them to fight to the finish.

Stalin said at the start of a national radio speech which was an extraordinary appeal for total warfare, that the Germans had captured Lithuania, a considerable part of Latvia, the western part of White Russia and the western part of the Ukraine. He said that the Germans continued to advance. (The Russians refer to Sovietized Poland as "Western White Russia" and "western Ukraine.")

But he said that the Russians already had smashed some of the finest German divisions, that their main forces were only now coming into action and that the national resistance was just beginning to grow in strength.

Stalin instructed to people to remove or destroy every animate or inanimate thing, every utensil, every bit of grain or oil or ore, in the German path, to leave nothing eatable or useable, to fight individually and collectively with every weapon and by every means and to harass the Germans in occupied areas.

By UNITED PRESS

German armies pounded toward the threshold of the Ukraine grainaries in a dangerous new thrust from southeast Poland today and Josef Stalin called on all Russia to meet the invaders with a scorched earth policy and to turn occupied areas into a hornet's nest of guerrilla warfare.

The official Moscow communique claimed that fierce and bloody battling of Red troops had brought the Nazi columns to a standstill on broad fronts but the German high command countered with the assertion that the fighting strength of the Red armies "now seems broken."

Both the Russian and the German communiques indicated that for the first time the Nazi military machine is gathering momentum in a drive

USO Committee Met Thursday

Quota of $1,335 Assigned County; Soroptimists Present Initial Check

It may be recalled that in 1917 and '18 when America was massing men in military camps, a number of different organizations were active in attempting to serve the men and the Nation by assisting in providing recreational opportunities and clubroom facilities for reading, writing and leisure time diversions.

This resulted in much duplication of effort and also duplication of appeals for financial support.

In the present time, with many of the nation's men going into military camps again, an effort has been made to eliminate the duplication of effort and the duplication of appeals for financial aid by the creation on a nation-wide basis of the United Service Organizations.

This is the national organization which is intending to administer the so-called morale building activities of various organizations.

El Dorado County has a chapter of the USO, formed on June 5, with Mrs. Maybelle Timm, of Kelsey, as chairman. Mrs. Hazel Volz, of Fruit Ridge, is secretary and members of the board include Wallace M. Ripley, A. H. Murray, Geo. Luneman, C. T. Bryan, Dell Cheney, Henry S. Lyon, Paul Smith and Dr. W. A. Rantz.

Mrs. Timm has recently received word that El Dorado County will be asked to subscribe $1,335 to the fund being raised for the work. She called a meeting of the board and any others actively interested to be held this (Thursday) noon, at Hotel Raffles.

Mrs. Timm said she had been advised that the Placerville Soroptimist Club will start the fund-raising campaign by contributing a check for $20 toward the quota.

Be Alive On The Fifth

Startling figures of the loss of life during July, 1940, by Independence Day fireworks, by drowning and by careless driving, again serve as a warning that cannot be repeated too often for this year's celebrators.

Killed—9,800; injured—900,000; cost — $300,000,000 — that was July, 1940. This would mean that at the crippling pace of thirteen people killed every hour, July's plague swept through the United States.

Every year injuries and death on the highway, death at the beaches, and avoidable accidents in Fourth celebrations mount to a staggering new total. Always the most fatal month of the year, July's accident losses have been 24 per cent higher than that of the average month. Every twelve days of the average July as many Americans are killed by accidents as lost their lives in the Revolutionary War. Approximately one of every 150 persons is injured by an accident in July.

The cost of America's traffic during the month of July last year, including holiday trips and everyday driving, was 2,790 lives. Public accidents, other than by automobile traffic, reach the year's peak in July. For 1940, this reached 2,500 deaths and about 300,000 injuries. The July totals were more than twice as great as those of any winter month. One-fifth of all drownings occur in July, most of them happening at beaches where there is not sufficient supervision.

The precautions are simple against this sort of thing, and there is no reason why it cannot be stopped. It can be stopped if every citizen uses a grain of caution and common sense. The main causes for these tragedies — haste, selfishness, thoughtlessness, the desire to show off — can be controlled. The accident toll for last July showed a decrease, and it was the only month in the last nineteen to show a decrease.

The National Safety Council has called on the United States to halt this mid-summer massacre by signing a new Declaration of Independence — independence from annual tribute of thousands of American lives needlessly sacrificed over the holiday and during the month. It calls on every citizen to do his or her part in this new independence from death and disaster by simply being careful and considerate of others. The Council's new national safety slogan is "Be Alive on The Fifth."

Friends have received word of the recent death at San Francisco of Mrs. Carolyn B. Proctor, widow of Dr. I. M. Proctor, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Proctor is survived by a daughter, Daisy, who, it will be recalled, became the wife of Dr. Clarence I. Reed, now deceased, who was a son of the late Mrs. John I. Reed, of this city.

L. J. Anderson was named chairman of the committee in charge and plans to contemplate the establishment of a large bin at or near his office, into which those participating in the campaign may toss such old pots or pans and other aluminum as they may have to contribute to the movement.

Cecil A. Barker is the new commander of the post, succeeding Paul Smith. Other officers are Thomas Chard, first vice-commander; William F. Truscott, second vice-commander; Mrs. Justine Faugsted, third vice-commander; William Byrnes, adjutant; M. E. Wright, finance officer; Otto Perschke, sergeant-at-arms; George E. Faugsted, service officer; and Swift Berry, C. S. Collins and Thomas Maul members of the executive committee.

Evening Hours Announced For Municipal Plunge

City playground officials announced Thursday that, in response to requests, evening swimming will be instituted at the pool.

Effective tonight, the pool will close at 6:30 o'clock and will re-open again at eight o'clock for evening swimming.

Some by-standers, over-hearing the announcement, suggested that the plans are for "evening" swimming, as distinguished from swims at midnight.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

Army generals and Navy admirals may have differing theories on why the Kaiser was defeated in World War No. 1, but hard-headed economists, who deal with fundamentals, and who look beyond military failures to learn their causes, have long since agreed that Germany lost the last war because of the lack of milk fat!

Malnutrition whipped the Kaiser's men, sapping the strength and morale of both the soldiers at the front and the people at home, according to economists, and the military blunders and military defeats were simply symptoms of the disease.

In light of that verdict, which has been generally accepted by the thoughtful historians, a recent analysis of the problems of the California dairy industry as they relate to the national emergency, made by Bartley C. Crum, San Francisco attorney, is challenging interest.

Speaking at the quarterly meeting of the California Dairy Council, Mr. Crum asserted:

"It may be commonplace to say that Germany lost the last war because of the lack of milk fat. But it is discouraging to know that in the United States of America, the greatest dairy nation in the world, where we have had milk in abundance, 40 per cent of those called up for service under our selective draft law have failed to pass their physical examinations because of malnutrition defects traceable, either directly or indirectly, to lack of the things which milk gives us.

"It is fine to be able to boast that more than 25,000,000 bottles of fresh milk are placed on the doorsteps of American homes daily, but the stubborn fact still remains that consumption of milk has not increased to the point where the health of the nation is guaranteed."

Some may comfort themselves with the thought, Mr. Crum continued, that in this country of abundance, we can have both guns and butter. But he pointed out that the needs of the British Isles alone call for between 15 and 17 million cases of evaporated milk, and that only a few days ago the British Food Administrator, Lord Woolton, asked that American housewives voluntarily cut down on the consumption of fluid milk so that 2,000,000 British children might be able to have enough milk in powdered form to enable them to survive.

"Because of military and other problems," continued Mr. Crum, "the British government has been obliged to cut down the number of dairy herds. England is faced not only with the need to implement her ordinary production. Since her milk production is down 20 percent, she must have much more than her usual and ordinary requirement. Not only that, among the captured peoples of Denmark, Norway, Holland, Belgium, Poland, France and Yugoslavia, literally millions of children are starving today for lack of milk, and when the end of the war comes, as it must, the demands upon the dairy industry of America will be increased one hundred fold.

"Furthermore, millions of our young men have been removed from private life—and the new army rations call for fresh milk every day for every soldier.

"Thus, as the productive capacity of the dairy industry turns more and more toward supplying our national needs, toward feeding Britain and China, it is clear that we must count on some curtailment of civilian production. Higher prices are frankly predicted by economists."

Urging an intensive, state-wide educational program to acquaint the public with problems of the dairy industry, to avert friction and misunderstanding and to prevent a possible demand for government control of the industry, Mr. Crum continued:

"We have yet to feel to any extent what our defense program means in terms of curtailment of civilian consumption. But already we have witnessed the executive fiat which has placed Mr. Ickes in charge of the production and distribution of oil; the proposal for gasless Sundays. Is there any man so foolish as to believe that in view of the tremendous importance of butterfat and dairy products in the modern war that the milk industry will escape similar regulation of production and distribution?"

"If necessity should force up the price of milk, or force a reduction of milk fat in a quart of milk, the public has a right to know why. Advertising is the only vehicle we have to tell the public, and it is our best insurance against the frictions and misunderstandings which may harass the industry for many long years after this conflict has ended. It is absolutely vital for the milk industry, during this emergency, to so interpret itself to the public that at the end of the war we will have preserved this industry as a free enterprise. We must make our system of free enterprise work, in the competition with the Nazi system of state enterprise and slave labor. And the future of the dairy industry as a free enterprise will depend not only on how well we do the job, but on how well we keep the public informed through intelligent, honest dairy advertising."

In addition to recommending a $500,000 advertising and public relations program for the dairy industry, Mr. Crum urged that a committee of the industry be appointed to study and to report upon the cost of distribution, and that such findings be made public. He likewise recommended that "we cooperate more completely with the Director of Agriculture in attempting to make the Milk Control Law work effectively for the benefit of the producer, the distributor, labor, and the consuming public."

MOUNTING COSTS OF DOING BUSINESS ARE CITED IN P. T. & T. REPORT

N. R. Powley, President of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, issued a statement today in connection with the release of the dividend checks to shareholders in which he commented on the indicated adverse effect on the company's earnings due to its huge plant construction program—in excess of 50 per cent over last year—now totaling more than $70,000,000, heavy increased wage payments recently effective and the forthcoming substantial tax increases.

In further commenting on the statement to shareholders, Mr. Powley stated:

"Throughout the entire Pacific Coast we are making huge plant additions to meet the extraordinary service requirements in the Defense Preparedness and the accelerated tempo of business activity. Our working forces have been considerably increased in number and we now have in excess of 35,000 employees or over 5,000 more than a year ago. We have the highest payroll in the history of the company.

"Prior to the first of the year we estimated that our 1941 construction program would approximate $60,000,000 of which an aggregate of $48,000,000 would be exclusively for new construction. We now estimate that this program, which is still in a state of flux, will be in excess of $70,000,000 and it will undoubtedly be enlarged due to the continued and unusual and unforeseen extraordinary service demands."

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barker are the parents of a daughter, born early Thursday morning, July 3, at a hospital in Stockton. The little lady is another grandchild for the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Jameson, of Visalia, and the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker, of Placerville.

The ambulance call Wednesday evening was to remove a Miss Cox, of Camino, to Placerville Sanatorium. It was understood Thursday that the patient's condition is materially better and she probably would leave the hospital during the day.

BANK CONTINUES GROWTH WHILE SERVING IN DEFENSE

Local officers of Bank of America point to the bank's statement of condition of June 30, as a picture of continued growth while the institution cooperated unreservedly with the national defense program and still maintained a full measure of service to ordinary business and individual needs.

Achievement of the new high marks under abnormal conditions and while coping with the requirements of many special services was regarded not only as a tribute to the efficient management of the bank but also as evidence of the entire state's economic soundness, to which this community has made an important contribution during the period.

In the bower-covered center of the float was Joyce Walker, daughter of one of the members of the order, in pioneer costume.

WEST SENTENCED TO EIGHT MONTHS IN COUNTY JAIL FOR BAD CHECKS

Kenneth P. West, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of issuing a worthless check, was sentenced in Superior Court Thursday morning to serve eight months in the county jail.

West had been in jail since his arrest about two and a half months ago and, through counsel, sought to have this period of time credited in the sentence. However, it was ordered that sentence run from date.

The defendant, said to have been previously convicted on a similar charge, had pleaded not guilty to an information containing four counts. However, when the defendant changed his plea to one of guilty on count one of the information, the district attorney moved to dismiss the other three counts.

It's fun to travel with Dad

My Dad's First Class—he takes mother and us children to hotels on our vacations. We think that's half the fun of traveling. We always see lots of interesting things to tell our friends about when we get home. Dad says mother deserves a taste of the service she gives at home the rest of the year. And he says it's better to stay at hotels and be sure of clean, quiet, safe surroundings every night. When I get big I'm going to stay in hotels, too.

LOTUS NEWS NOTES

Gold Trail Grange held their regular meeting at the hall in Coloma last Wednesday night, with a small attendance of members. The meeting was called to order by the master, Harmin Winji. Minutes were read and general business transacted. Refreshments were served by the Grange ladies. It is hoped that a larger crowd of the members will be on hand at their next meeting Wednesday night, July 9th.

Mrs. Harry Reaside and her friend, Mrs. Henry Bacchi, took advantage of the nice partly cloudy day and drove down to Sacramento on Thursday last attending to some business matters and have a look at the sight and doing in the Capitol city.

The weather the past week has been partly cloudy days. Our first rain for the month was on Tuesday last when we had light rains off and on all day clearing off by night fall. This is all the rain for the entire month.

Mrs. Chester Vaughn took a day off the past week and represented Lotus at Placerville doing a little trading and taking in the sights at the county seat.

Twenty years ago next Friday July 4th a large crowd was in Coloma to celebrate the day of Independence which was sponsored by Mark Burns, of Sacramento. Over two thousand people were on the streets and the street parade of which Mr. Burns was the leader was sure in every way up to date and well remembered by all those who were there. We are much in doubt if we will ever see another fourth of July like that of July 4, 1921 unless Mr. Burns takes hold of it again.

Our old friend Al Wonderly with his lady friend Ollie Thompson of Sacramento was in our town Sunday afternoon enroute to his old home at Placerville where he was born and raised. His grand father, the late Nick Wonderly, and his two sons, Alex Wonderly and John Wonderly, also father, had a large blacksmith and wagon makers shop at a site near the Mountain Democrat office which they conducted for years up to the time of their deaths. Al wanted to see his old home town so they went from here to Placerville Al is sporting a new Buick which he recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Mays came up from their Oakland home last Wednesday and brought Miss Marilyn Hines home. She has been visiting at the Mays home for the past month much enjoying her visit. The Mays folks have a summer home some 11 miles west of Lotus which they purchased some two years ago from A. M. Jackson near the Mag-nolia ranch on Greenwood Creek.

Clyde Thayer returned from Lompoc where they were called by the illness and death of Mrs. Thayer's mother a week ago. They came home last Thursday evening bringing with them their three grand children Irene, Albert and Robert Rhodes who will spend a month here.

Mrs. Wm. Sherburne and daughter Mary, of Sacramento, who have been visitors at the home of Mrs. Galleher the past week, returned to their home on Friday.

Leonard Snyder was up for a few days visit from Sacramento. A meeting of the Lotus, Coloma and Gold Hill Farm Center Fair committee was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Leo Oviedo in Coloma. Plans were discussed for the center's exhibit at the county fair to be held in August.

Those present were Sam Veerkamp, Max Bollman, the hostess and Mr. and Mrs. Reaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Marchini were Lotus visitors on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bacchi, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reaside drove to Georgetown Friday evening to attend the card party given by the Townsend club.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herzog returned Sunday from a trip to Kelso, Washington, where they visited with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herzog.

The two young sons of the Phil Mainwaring are spending a few days with Grandma and Grandpa Bassi.

Mr. Byrnes, salesman for the Cannon Chevrolet Co., has been seen in Lotus quite often lately.

MOSQUITO NEWS NOTES

It was a seven and one-half pound baby girl that arrived last Friday morning, June 27th, for Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fellows. Mrs. Fellows is staying for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beckett.

Mrs. Justine Johnstone and two children have returned for a few days more visit with her sister Mrs. G. Scott before returning to their home in Seattle. Mrs. Johnstone has been visiting her brothers in Oakland for the past week.

Edward Alexander returned last Saturday after spending a two weeks vacation in Oakland.

Mr. Clark of the Crozier Mine is up from Los Angeles and expects to spend a month at his mine.

NORTH SIDE WOMAN BAGS FIFTY-POUND FOX RAISING COOP

If a Georgetown dispatch to the Sacramento Bee is correct, perhaps the officers at Camp San Luis Obispo are over-looking a bet.

On a recent furlough at home, James Foose, who is in Army service at Camp San Luis Obispo, showed his mother, Mrs. E. L. Foose, how to shoot with a pistol.

One night soon after James went back to camp, Mrs. Foose heard some confusion in the henhouse and, armed with a pistol and a flashlight, she found that a fifty-pound fox was the cause of it all, and promptly slew the fox.

It is suggested that James Foose has demonstrated his ability as an instructor in pistol shooting.

POWER COMPANY ANNOUNCES IMMEDIATE START ON PITT RIVER PLANT

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company has announced it will begin work at once on the construction of another hydro-electric project on the Pitt River in Shasta County. This project will take the place of the power plants which the Company proposed to build at Cresta and Pulga on the Feather River in Plumas County, and will be approximately of the same capacity.

The change in the Company's construction program followed a decision by the Federal Power Commission imposing certain special conditions in the proposed license as finally authorized for the Feather River plants which the Company believes would raise intolerable conflicts of jurisdiction between Federal and State agencies. Efforts to obtain a modification of the decision have been unsuccessful and the Company has advised the Commission that it will be impossible to accept a Federal license under the conditions imposed. These conditions are unusual and would make it impossible for the Company to construct additional generating facilities, either steam or hydro, or to contract for additional power, with minor exceptions, without the approval of the Federal Power Commission, irrespective of whether or not such additions are subject to regulation under the Federal Power Act.

DEPUTY'S DEATH LAID TO DAIRY FARM STRIKERS

VERGENNES, Vt., (U) — Deputy Sheriff Ray Russell, about 40, of Monkton was killed today, allegedly when he was dragged from a truck that attempted to run a gauntlet of striking dairy farmers.

Sheriff Ralph C. Sweet of Addison county said he had seized four men, including two brothers, for questioning.

He said the incident occurred on the road from Waltham to Vergennes.

Russell, he said, had climbed aboard the loaded milk truck shortly before it started to move through the picket line.

Sweet said Russell was pulled from the running board of the truck and slipped beneath the rear wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther and family are among those planning to spend the Fourth of July weekend at Lake Tahoe.

Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever — The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "To grasp the reality and order of being in its Science, you must begin by reckoning God as the divine Principle of all that really is.
